

DIRECTORY

of African Caribbean, Asian,
Black and Ethnic Minority Community Organisations

2006

INTRODUCTION

The first edition of this Directory was launched in April 2001 and proved to be successful in raising awareness about services provided in the voluntary and community sector by and for the African Caribbean and Asian Communities. The Directory has been updated and reissued, and this third edition now also contains details of a small number of organisations provided for other ethnic minority communities.

We would like to thank all the organisations which have contributed their details for inclusion. In addition, we would like to thank NAVO, NCVS, ACAF and Nottingham City Council's Action on Diversity team for their assistance.

As before, the Directory will be distributed to all organisations which contributed information as well as to all Social Services offices and libraries.

The Directory will also be available on the City Council's internet site. Please see 'publications' on the Social Services section of the website.

Brief description of services

This group is for families with black children between 5 - 11 years old, who live in Broxtowe, Aspley, Strelley, Bilborough and surrounding areas. This service brings together children from different cultural backgrounds and gives them an opportunity to share their experiences of racism and to learn positive ways of coping with this problem. Members also gain an awareness of their own and other children's cultural festivals and are supported to develop a positive black identity. All of the above is achieved through a variety of group activities. The Family Centre also provides welfare rights advice, runs activity groups for children (5 - 12 years), offers supportive positive parenting groups for parents and carers, does individual behaviour management work with children along with opportunities for doing voluntary work.

Nai Zindagi is a service that offers support through counselling, advice and information for Asian women with mental health difficulties. These difficulties can be due to isolation, loneliness and stress. This support is given on a one to one basis and also in the form of group work. All of this is conducted in the appropriate Asian language. The project takes referrals from mental health teams within Nottingham Health Authority and works along side key-workers to provide a holistic, responsive service. The project also supports a carers' group specifically for female carers. The carers' group and a 'users' group meet on Thursdays at Stonebridge Centre at 10:00am-3:00pm. Carers group meets on Mondays at the Mandala Centre at 1:00-3:00pm.
